PETTIWARD HALL COMMITTEE

Easter Monday afternoon

Thank you Steve and the rest of the Dangers and Dumplings for once again providing free entertainment and fun for us all on Easter Monday afternoon. We appreciate your hard work and acknowledge with thanks the assistance given by the Waspe farming fraternity. FINBOROUGH won the Race of the Bogmen.

Teas

The Hall was a welcome refuge from the cold and the teas, sandwiches, delicious cakes and hot doughnuts so generously given enabled us to charge reasonable prices and still make a profit of £46. Thank you everyone for your time and support.

Evening

The Ceilidh was a happy lively event with dancing to music by John Goodluck and the Trunkles. Thank you John and the Band for coming to us even though you had a later more tempting offer from the Maltings, Snape.

Thank you Eric for running the bar and on all the numerous occasions in the past. We shall miss you and wish you and Eve good health and contentment in your retirement. We shall think of you when we use your portable refreshment bar.

Stoke hole

The opening from the Hall into the room known as the Stoke Hole though not yet finished made a vast difference to the catering and we should like to record our thanks especially to John Grimaldi, Gerry Squirrell and Maurice Lloyd who gave up a week-end to bring this about - it entailed a lot of hard work.

If you have any ideas or requests for future events do let members of the Committee know. All profits are used for the upkeep, running and maintenance of the Hall and also for improvements.

Congratulations to Mr. & Mrs. Proctor on their Golden Wedding Anniversary on April 29th.

Thanks to Mrs. Christopherson for her letter to Women's Realm which is reprinted here:

.....Neighbour
With reference to Mrs. Hart's letter - her neighbours might not be good, but I'm proud to say ours are wonderful! Having moved into this small village, we were very apprehensive about being accepted into the community and wondered what our neighbours would be like. We worried for nothing, for we were made to feel welcome as soon as we arrived. So we take our hats off to the Finborough people - we are truly lucky as far as neighbours go!

Margaret Christopherson,
Great Finborough, Suffolk.

PARISH COUNCIL MEETING (25th March)

This was Rev. Wake's final meeting as a Great Finborough Parish Councillor.

A site meeting with a representative of the District Council had been held to discuss car parking arrangements for the Bungalows, High Road. The Council was impressed by the positive approach of the District Council. It had been agreed to pursue the possibility of the construction of long lay-bys in front of the properties.

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Whether you are postage stamp size or just cover the odd acre or two - your garden that is - we were pleased to welcome Mr. Borrett of Notcutts Nurseries who was our speaker for the evening, showing slides of shrubs and flowers suitable for flower arranging. Those long horticultural names, that some of us have difficulty in getting past the first syllable, were flowing thick and fast - very glad the common names followed in hot pursuit - some of us still have 'L' plates to display in this respect!! Our grateful thanks go to Mr. Borrett for providing us with a very pleasant evening, judging by the notetaking that was in progress, the gardens of Great Finborough will soon have a few floral 'additions' to boast.

May I please draw your attention to the Fashion Show by Mobile Modes to be held in aid of Stow Lodge Hospital on Thursday, 28th April in the Pettiward Hall at 7.30 pm. There are a few tickets left so do please come along and give all the support you can, it is indeed a very worthy cause.

Thursday, April, 14th is the date Mr. Harry Double will be talking about 'Old Stowmarket', yet another entertaining and enjoyable evening in store for us all.

PARISH MEETING

The Parish Meeting in March was attended by 21 parishioners, Mr Patton (County Councillor) and Mr. Mitson (District Councillor).

In his report of the Pettiward Hall Committee, Dr. Young spoke of the Hall as a unique asset to the village. New uses of the facilities were being sought and in this context the Committee had encouraged the formation of the Youth Club.

Mrs. Ravenscroft gave a full report on the Primary School and the Meeting gave a vote of thanks to Mr. Twitchett and his staff for their interest and support of the children and the village.

Mr. Patton outlined the likely action to be taken to suspend operations at the unauthorised tip being developed near the Finborough Bridge opposite to Home Farm.

Mr. Cass gave a detailed account of the duties of the Community Emergency Adviser and of the likely effects on the local community in event of nuclear war conditions.
